

New GMD Editorial

The Executive Editors of GMD, with input from all the editorial board, have put together an Editorial which defines new publication criteria for GMD papers, and defines the journal scope. The publication criteria are focussed on increasing the transparency and rigour of model developments, including the mandatory provision of model code during the review process. The Editorial can be seen here.